CHINLINK INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS LIMITED
(HKSE Stock Code: 0997)

WeWork, the World's Leading Community, Space and Service Provider, Sets Foot in Chinlink International Centre in Xi'an

[22 May 2019 – Hong Kong] Chinlink International Holdings Limited (“Chinlink”, HKSE Stock Code: 0997) and its subsidiaries (collectively the “Group”) and WeWork, the world’s leading community, space and service provider, are pleased to announce that WeWork will open a new space in Chinlink International Centre (CIC), a commercial development project under the flagship of Chinlink in Xi’an.

Strategically situated at the heart of the Xi'an Economic and Technological Development Zone (“XET Development Zone”), CIC is highly accessible to the adjacent offices of the People's Government of Xi'an Municipality and the XET Development Zone Management Committee, the Xi'an North Railway Station which is one of the largest high-speed railway stations in China, and China (Shaanxi) Pilot Free Trade Zone. CIC has a total gross floor area (GFA) of approximately 55,000 square metres that comprises a 25-storey high-quality office tower and a 4-storey commercial complex. CIC is ready for occupation in mid-2019. Inspired by the historical and ancient cultural legacy of Xi'an, CIC incorporates the “scenic landscape” design concept in its exterior form by integrating the Chinese scenic nature and modern architecture elements which gives CIC a very unique image. Equipped with high-quality building materials, intelligent hi-tech facilities and wide range of amenities, CIC will become a symbol of modern office, offering ideal space for work, recreation and social activities for innovative companies in finance and technology, and start-up entrepreneurs with creative business ideas. CIC is posed to serve as a hub for the development of innovative-oriented economies in XET Development Zone in Xi'an.

WeWork’s 3-storey space in CIC can provide over 1,000 desks. With CIC’s superior location, comfortable working environment and supporting facilities, WeWork will reinvent the space for office and community for Xi’an’s start-ups, medium-sized companies and Fortune 500 companies with excellent environment for networking and business development.

Mr. Siu Wai Yip, Executive Director of Chinlink, said, "CIC is an ingenious project showcasing the Group's commitment to innovation and entrepreneurship. We are delighted that CIC is a chosen venue by a large multinational corporation like WeWork to be their pioneer project base in Xi'an. In recent years, 'sharing economy' is flourishing in many parts of the world and the Xi'an governments is highly supportive to 'sharing economy' related businesses. WeWork in CIC will provide an international platform in Xi'an to attract talents of diverse cultures and aspirations, offering a favourable environment for the exchanges of ideas and expertise, sharing of resources to facilitate creativity, collaboration, innovation and entrepreneurship in Xi'an and across the Shaanxi Province. With CIC's location advantage and accessibility, its modern elegant architectural design and comprehensive amenities, best-in-class property management services provided by Cushman & Wakefield, CIC stands out from the crowd in Xi'an. WeWork as an anchor tenant is a strong validation of CIC's competitive positioning and the importance of XET Development Zone being an up-and-coming major CBD in Xi'an."

Mr. Conan Quan, General Manager of WeWork North China, said, "WeWork had a foothold in Asia and Greater China since 2016 and expanded rapidly. We have established over 70 locations in 8 cities within three years' time in Greater China. In the early stage of site selection, we used the market data collected from our extensive market researches conducted to validate our selection. The international image and uniqueness of CIC, together with the high-quality construction, communal sky garden and other environmentally friendly and modern design facilities, all these matches perfectly with WeWork's positioning and image. To adhere our mission to create a world where people work to make a life, not just a living, we will bring subversive collaborative work space to local startups, small and medium-sized companies and large enterprises in Xi'an, enrich their communication and unlock their potential so as to promote innovative industries in Xi'an. What's more important is WeWork has a global network with 466,000 members scattered across 28 countries and 105 cities, and this can help Xi'an connect to the rest of the world and enhance its innovation output to attract more international attention. Besides, it can also elevate Xi'an's innovation to the world-class standard and establish a sustainable ecosystem to bring momentum for its urban development."
