“Chinlink . Mid-Autumn Caring Campaign”
Share Love and Care to the Singleton Elderlies across Generations

[24 September 2017 - Hong Kong] Chinlink International Holdings Limited (“Chinlink”, HKSE Stock Code: 0997) and its subsidiaries (collectively the “Group”) has been spared no efforts in contributing to the society, and encourages employees to participating in community services. The Group sponsored the “Chinlink . Mid-Autumn Caring Campaign” (the “Event”) organised by Jockey Club Yau Tong Children & Youth Integrated Services Centre, The Boys' & Girls' Clubs Association of Hong Kong (the “Centre”) for three consecutive years, to show our love and care to the singleton elderlies.

The Event was successfully held on 24 September 2017 morning with a total of approximately 150 participants, including the members of Chinlink Corporate Volunteer Service Team, youngsters and parent-child volunteers from the Centre. The volunteers were briefed and divided into small groups, then they walked to the elders’ home located in Yau Lai Estate and Yau Tong Estate of Yau Tong, with “Chinlink. Mid-Autumn Gift Packs”. The elderly were delighted to have youngsters visit and shared the festival joy.

The volunteers shared their experiences after the Event. A volunteer expressed that it was the first time she joined voluntary service with her children and she felt that the event was very meaningful as it was a good opportunity to let her children learn how to care and love the community or needy. Another volunteer said he had participated in the visit for the third time, he gradually developed the skills to communicate with the elderlies by sharing their favourite topics, he and the elderlies enjoyed the warm moments together.

Mr. Siu Wai Yip, Executive Director of Chinlink, said, “The Group is committed in encouraging employees and youngsters to participate in community visits and charitable services. We believe the education of youngsters is vitally important for the future development of our society. The Group wishes to develop a close relationship across generations in order to uplift the young generations the conscience of respecting and caring the elderlies, and offer an emotional support to the elderlies so as to promote a harmonious society through this meaningful Mid-Autumn festive visit.”

The beneficiary organisation, i.e. The Boys’ & Girls’ Club Association of Hong Kong (“BGCA”), was established in 1936. With the founding ethos “Nurture the Young Create the Future”, BGCA endeavours to facilitate the wellbeing of children and young people. The objects of BGCA include helping children and youth attain well-balanced moral, intellectual, physical, social and aesthetic development, nurturing children and youth to be contributing citizens, strengthening the functioning of families, promoting the concern of parents and the public for the welfare of youngsters, in particular disadvantaged groups, and striving for the rights to which they are entitled, through concerted efforts with service recipients and the general public.

Chinlink Corporate Volunteer Service Team sent their blessings to the elderlies.
